

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1: Introduction 1

- What Is Project CRISS? 1
 - History 1
 - Professional Development Workshops 2
 - Other CRISS Resources 2
- Purpose of this Book 3
 - Common Core State Standards 3
- Parameters for Using this Book 4
 - Audience 4
 - Anchor Standards 4
 - Grade Levels 4
 - Flexibility 4
- Organization of this Book 5
 - Overall Organization 5
 - Format for Strategy Presentations 6

Chapter 2: Project CRISS Embodies the Common Core Expectations 9

- How the Common Core State Standards Impact Instruction 9
- Common Core Anchor Standards in Reading and Writing 10
- Using the Common Core State Standards 14
 - Integrate 14
 - Model 14
 - Reflect 14
- The Role of Metacognition 14
- CCSS and CRISS Frameworks for Learning and Teaching 15
- CCSS Considerations and Concerns 17
 - Writing Instruction 17
 - Text complexity 18
 - Reading—Background Knowledge 18
 - Reading—Close Reading 19
- Closing Comments 20

Chapter 3: Examining Author’s Craft and Structure 21

- Informational Text in the CCSS 21
- Reader’s Knowledge of Author’s Craft and Structure 22
 - Text Format 22
 - Main Idea-Details 22
 - Explanations 22
 - Vocabulary 22
 - Voice 23
 - Perspective 23
 - Disciplinary Text 23
- Analyzing an Author’s Craft and Structure 24
 - Walking Through Text 24
 - Editorial Review Board 26
- Analyzing an Author’s Perspective 27
 - Examining the Author’s Perspective 27
- Scaffold Writing About Author’s Craft and Perspective 29
 - Writing Templates for Author’s Craft 29
 - Writing Templates for Analyzing Perspective 30
- Closing Comments 30

Chapter 4: Engagement and Persistence During Reading 31

- Engagement for Deep Reading 31
 - Read and Explain 31
 - In My Own Words 33
 - Read-Recall-Check 35
 - Comprehension Mind Streaming 36
 - Read-and-Say-Something 37
 - Heuristics 39
- Closing Comments 43

Chapter 5: Determining Central Ideas 45

- Main Ideas and Support 46
 - Self-Questioning for Main Ideas 46
 - Power Thinking 47
 - Power Writing 50
- Annotating and Coding Text 52
 - Annotating Text and Selective Underlining 52
 - Text Coding 53
- Summarizing 55
 - Magnet Summaries 55
- Scaffold Writing About Main Ideas 56
 - Writing Templates for Central Ideas 57
- Closing Comments 57

Chapter 6: Questioning for Deep Comprehension 59

Current Questioning Practices 59

Teacher-Developed Questions 61

Think and Engage Questions 61

Guidelines for Creating Text-Dependent Questions 63

Guidelines for Creating Questions Relating to Deep-Reading Tasks 65

Student-Developed Questions 68

Authentic Questions 68

Revised Bloom's Taxonomy 70

Questioning the Author 73

Closing Comments 77

Chapter 7: Delineating and Evaluating Arguments 79

Argumentation Organizers 80

Conclusion-Support Notes 80

Discussion Web 83

Proposition-Support Notes 85

Scaffold Writing for Argumentation 88

Writing Templates for Argumentation 88

Closing Comments 89

Chapter 8: Final Comments 91

Appendices 93

A: College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Speaking and Listening 94

B: College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Language 95

Bibliography 97

Index 99