Please initial the following agreements:

___ I understand active, respectful participation is expected during both sessions.

___ I understand missing an online session may result in no credit for completion. No refunds.

___ I understand that I must have a microphone headset to participate. Computer speakers and a built-in microphone may not be adequate and can result in audio disruption on the user end.

___ I understand the sessions are LIVE and require a high-speed internet connection and active participation (speaking and typing in a timely manner).

Project CRISS will provide options in the event of significant technological difficulties beyond our control.

This schedule includes a total of twelve (12) hours of live, online course sessions, six (6) hours per day: 11 AM – 6 PM Eastern, 10 AM – 5 PM Central, 9 AM- 4 PM Mountain, 8 AM – 3PM Pacific (includes breaks).

Approximately 24 hours prior to the first session, the trainer will email all attendees connection instructions and any relevant handouts. We recommend participants print the materials for ease of access and note taking during the online sessions.
